FEDERAL GRAND JURY RETURNS INDICTMENTS

Madison, Wisconsin -- A federal grand jury in the Western District of Wisconsin, sitting in Madison, returned the following indictments today. You are advised that a charge is merely an accusation and that a defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.

INDONESIAN MAN CHARGED WITH ATTEMPTING TO EXPORT ARMS AND LYING TO FBI

Doli Syariaf Pulungan, age unknown, a citizen of Indonesia who has been staying in Cashton, Wisconsin, is charged with conspiracy to export from the United States to Indonesia a defense article without having obtained from the U.S. State Department the required license or written authorization for such export.

The indictment alleges that on July 31, 2007, Pulungan e-mailed an individual and instructed him to order 100 Leupold Mark 4 CQ/T Riflescopes, to have the scopes shipped to the individual's home in the Western District of Wisconsin until they could be shipped overseas, and to not tell the company that the items were going to Indonesia. The indictment further alleges that on September 26, 2007, Pulungan contacted another person in the Western District of Wisconsin and asked this individual to obtain the scopes for shipment to Saudi Arabia, and then onto Indonesia.

The second count of the indictment charges Pulungan with making a false statement to the Federal Bureau of Investigation on September 27, 2007.

Pulungan was earlier charged with the false statement count in a complaint filed in U.S. District Court in Madison on September 28, 2007. He is scheduled to appear for arraignment at 2:00 p.m. today.

If convicted, Pulungan faces a maximum penalty of 10 years in federal prison on the exporting defense articles count, and five years on the false statement count. The charge against him is the result of an investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, with the assistance of the U.S. State Department. The prosecution of this case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney Meredith P. Duchemin.

RHINELANDER NURSE CHARGED WITH ILLEGALLY DISPENSING PRESCRIPTION MEDICINE, RESULTING IN DEATH OF INDIVIDUAL

Candice Rosenberg, 60, of Rhinelander, is charged in an 82-count indictment with illegally dispensing prescription medicine to eight individuals, resulting in the death of one person. Rosenberg was a licensed nurse practitioner with the authority to write prescriptions for narcotics and other controlled substances. The indictment charges her with writing prescriptions outside the usual course of professional practice.

Nine counts of the indictment allege that from February 3, 2005 to June 17, 2005, she dispensed oxycodone, morphine sulfate, and fentanyl to an individual designated in the indictment as K.W., and one count alleges that on July 11, 2005, she dispensed 15 patches containing fentanyl to K.W., resulting in the death of K.W. The other 72 counts of the indictment allege that in 2004 and 2005, she dispensed oxycodone, fentanyl, morphine sulphate, hydrocodone, and amphetamine to seven different individuals on multiple occasions.

If convicted, Rosenberg faces a mandatory minimum penalty of 20 years and a maximum of life in federal prison for the count alleging the death of K.W., and a maximum of 20 years on each of the other 81 counts. The charges against her are the result of an investigation conducted by the Oneida County Sheriff's Department, Rhinelander Police Department, and the Drug Enforcement Administration. The prosecution of this case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney Paul W. Connell.

MADISON MAN CHARGED WITH DRUG CRIME

Crisanto Martinez Lopez, 25, of Madison, is charged with possessing with intent to distribute 500 grams or more of cocaine. The indictment alleges that he possessed the cocaine on October 10, 2007.

If convicted, Lopez faces a mandatory minimum penalty of five years and a maximum penalty of 40 years in federal prison. The charge against him the result of an investigation conducted by the Dane County Narcotics and Gang Task Force and Drug Enforcement Administration. The prosecution of this case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney Rita M. Rumbelow.
